

I am writing to state my opposition to weakening Indiana's Do Not Call Law to allow the Consumer Bankers Association to impose the "existing business relationship" exemption on consumers. It is particularly these types of calls - credit card companies, banks, etc. - that are most intrusive into lives.